

Space to do more. Anywhere.

The Lenovo L16 mobile monitor brings a bigger, better viewing experience to wherever life takes you—perfect for streaming, entertaining, creating, studying, or multitasking on the go. Its ultra-slim, lightweight design is effortless to carry, while adjustable viewing angles make it easy to get comfortable in any setting. With simple USB-C¹ plug-and-play connectivity, it delivers an instant second screen without the hassle. It's a sleek, portable second screen designed to fit effortlessly into today's fast-moving, always-connected lifestyle.

Big screen power. Easy-to-carry freedom

- Ready to go anywhere

The ultra-slim 7 mm profile and 980 g weight make it incredibly easy to take anywhere, giving you a bigger, better screen wherever life happens.

- Bigger visual clarity

A 16-inch WUXGA IPS display with 300 nits brightness and a 16:10 aspect ratio delivers richer detail, wider viewing space, and stunning clarity for streaming, browsing, and everyday use.

- Comfort all day

TÜV-certified Flicker-free and Hardware Low Blue Light Solution helps keep your eyes comfortable during longer viewing sessions while preserving natural, accurate color.

Comfort that moves with you

- Your perfect angle

Tilt adjustment from 0–90° and height adjustment up to 10 mm give you the flexibility to find the most comfortable angle, no matter where you're using it.

- Switch in seconds

The ergonomic L-shaped stand lets you switch easily between portrait and landscape modes, making it effortless to adapt for streaming, studying, working, or creating.

Plug in. Power up. Play on.

- One cable. Done

Dual USB-C¹ ports—one on each side—let you connect with a single cable for laptops or smartphones, keeping your setup simple, clean, and ready to go.

- Power while you play

With up to 65W power delivery and power pass-through, you can power the monitor and charge your device at the same time, so you stay plugged in without extra clutter.

- Setup made easy

The included 1 m flexible USB-C¹ cable makes setup effortless wherever you use it—at home, in a café, or on the move.
